Hanover County School Board Member Robert L. Hundley, Jr. Elected VSBA President; New Board of Directors Announced

November 18, 2016 – Robert L. Hundley, Jr, who has served on the Hanover County School Board since 2004, has been named president of the Virginia School Boards Association (VSBA) at the association's annual convention, which took place November 16-18 in Williamsburg, VA.

Hundley has served as chairman of the Hanover County School Board and held several leadership positions with the VSBA, including serving as president-elect, chairman of the Legislative Positions/Federal Relations Committee, at-large member, member of the Finance Committee, and a member of the VSBA Task Force on Schools in Challenging Environments. Hundley has also represented the VSBA Board of Directors on the Virginia Department of Education's Advisory Committee for the Education of the Gifted and the Virginia Association of School Superintendents' Assessment Roundtable.

"I am honored to be selected to serve as the president of VSBA for the upcoming year," said Hundley, "The mission of the VSBA is to promote excellence in public education through advocacy, training, and services, and I look forward to working with the incoming Board of Directors and school boards across the Commonwealth to fulfill that mission."

In addition to Hundley, Scott M. Albrecht of Manassas City was elected president-elect, and R. Tyrone Foster of Bristol City and Camilla Washington of Fluvanna County were elected as members-at-large. VSBA's 2015-2016 president, William S. Kidd of Wythe County, will serve on the VSBA Board of Directors as immediate past president.

In one of his first acts as president, Hundley appointed Jarvis E. Bailey of Fredericksburg City as chairman of the VSBA Finance/Audit Committee, and Elizabeth Hardy of Goochland County as chairman of the VSBA Legislative Positions/Federal Relations Committee.

VSBA's 2016-2017 Regional Chairmen are: Beckie Cox of Pulaski County, Janet Turner-Giles of Nelson County, Iris Lane of Westmoreland County, Jim Meyer of Spotsylvania County, Kenneth Pritchett of Petersburg City, Julie Bennington of Bedford County, David Woodard of Tazewell County, Rodney Jordan of Norfolk City, and Teresa Ellison of Buena Vista City.
