2021 VSBA Food For Thought Competition Winners Announced Winners Recognized at the VSBA Conference on Education

July 20, 2021 – Six school divisions received top honors in the 2021 Virginia School Boards Association (VSBA) Food for Thought Competition. Winning divisions were recognized at the VSBA Conference on Education, which took place virtually earlier today. The competition was created in 2012 to educate, engage, and empower school leaders to address childhood hunger and provide all students in Virginia with healthier, more nutritious school meals. This is the eighth year the awards were given out, and the sponsor for the awards was ABM.

The competition was divided into three separate categories – Healthy School Meals, Meal Access to Fight Hunger, and Wellness and Physical Activity. The winning school divisions are as follows:

Healthy School Meals

Winner (Below 10,000 Student Population) – Charlottesville City Public Schools
Winner (Above 10,001 Student Population) – Chesterfield County Public Schools

Meal Access to Fight Hunger

Winner (Below 10,000 Student Population) – Louisa County Public Schools
Winner (Above 10,001 Student Population) – Norfolk City Public Schools

Wellness and Physical Activity

Winner (Below 10,000 Student Population) – Shenandoah County Public Schools
Winner (Above 10,001 Student Population) – Roanoke County Public Schools
