

VSBA Title IX: Best Practices in Training & Compliance Level 2

October 28, 2020

Virtual Conference

New Title IX Regulations went into effect in August and require training for staff people who fill several roles in the Title IX process, including Investigators and Decision-Makers. School boards need to be confident that the people who fill those roles in their divisions receive the required training. This session is designed to provide the required training for Investigators and Decision-Makers as well as provide board members with an understanding of those roles.

The new federal Title IX Regulations effective in August 2020 require basic levels of training for school division employees. The VSBA offered a presentation on that basic training in September 2020. The Regulations also require so-called "Level II" training for professionals who will serve as school divisions' Investigators and Decision-Makers as those terms are defined in the Regulations. This training will review the basic level training, but will also focus on the areas of training required for this sub-set of professionals, including topics such as proper investigation, impartiality, relevancy, the use of technology in hearings (if conducted), and the scope of divisions' educational programs. This training is designed to address the requirements for Level II training.

Hosted by the VSBA and presented by Bradford King and Nicole Cheuk, attorneys with Sands Anderson PC, this timely and important level 2 workshop is a must. The workshop will take place as a virtual conference from 10:00 AM—12:00 PM.

Register today! You won't want to miss out on this informative workshop.

WHAT IS TITLE IX?

“No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”
