

SUPERINTENDENT SEARCH PROCESS

The Page County Public Schools (PCPS) School Board is launching a search for an innovative and dedicated leader to serve as the division's next superintendent, beginning July 1, 2025. Our Board is committed to a transparent process, ensuring meaningful input from the entire PCPS community—staff, families, students, and stakeholders. We seek a leader who will champion the division's core values and work in partnership with the community to advance our goals and vision for the future of education in Page County.

Information will be added to this webpage as the PCPS School Board moves through the process.
